Vision

Creating a vision for a good life with your family member with a disability is one of the most important steps you can take. It is in creating a vision and sharing it with others that our dreams become reality. The following resources will help you get started.

A Good Life by Al Etmanski

A Good Life is for families, friends and caregivers of people with disabilities. It offers a step by step guide to creating a plan for the future which provides for the safety, security and well being of people with disabilities. It leads the reader to look beyond professional services and programs in planning for the future and focus on what is needed to create a good life.

Peace of Mind CD ROM

Peace of Mind is a practical and caring interactive tool to help you plan for the future of your relative with a disability. It combines personal stories, testimonials, tips, videos and worksheets to get you started on your path to peace of mind.

Safe and Secure-Seven Steps to creating a Good Life for People with Disabilities — Alberta Edition by Al Etmanski with Jack Collins and Vickie Cammack. Alberta contribution by Tom Cain

Safe and Secure offers clear, practical guidance for planning for the future. It provides information relevant to families within the framework of policy, regulations and practice in Alberta. Safe and Secure includes specific information on AISH and other government benefit entitlements, alternatives to adult guardianship, financial planning, will and estate planning, discretionary trusts, home ownership and establishing a network of friends. For families living in Alberta there is no better source for information to help you plan for the future of your relative with a disability.

Peace Begins With Me by Ted Kuntz

In Peace Begins With Me; Ted Kuntz shares the story of how his son with a disability led him on a journey through darkness to a life of peace, joy and happiness. At the core of his message are simple yet powerful strategies that enable us to experience more peace and joy and create a life more of our choosing. Ted's deeply personal story is an inspiration to all of us who want to move past pain and hurt, and return to peace and joy.

Relationships

Safety and security is dependent on the number of caring and supportive relationships in our lives. Overcoming isolation and loneliness is often one of the biggest challenges our relative will face. The following resources can help you learn about developing circles of support.

PLAN Institute for Caring Citizenship

The Institute's goal is to foster caring communities that welcome the participation and contribution of all citizens. They provide training, consultation, research and publications for individuals, families, organizations, support workers and professionals who want to learn more about values, concepts and processes to create caring relationships.

Email: inquiries@planinstitute.ca Website: www.planinstitute.ca

The Company of Others: Stories of Belonging by Sandra Shields and David Campion

This book uniquely captures the spirit and significance of personal networks. Compelling stories and photographs lead the reader on an intimate journey into the lives of five individuals — with no connection to one other and little in common, except in one respect: each person is at the centre of an active social “circle” — a network of caring friends and family whose lives are enriched by the relationship they share. An extraordinary and moving book about the transformative power of family and community.

Reaching Out; A portrait of social networks in Canada by Nancy Rother

Reaching Out is a portrait of facilitated social network development across Canada. Filled with the wisdom of individuals, families and facilitators from all walks of life, it is one of the clearest, most practical guides you will find to facilitating networks. The report is based around seven critical elements for creating and sustaining social networks, exploring challenges and offering practical tips for each.

Email: inquiries@planinstitute.ca Website: www.planinstitute.ca

One Candle Power — Seven Principles that Enhance the Lives of people with Disabilities and Their Communities Revised by Cathy Ludlum and the Communitas Team.

The Communitas Team created seven booklets on supporting Circles in the mid 1980's. This wisdom has recently been updated so you can review the lessons they learned then — and in the intervening years. If you want to know about Circles of Support, this is a wonderful resource.

Weaving the Ties That Bind

An online course for facilitators. Using 18 years of PLAN's experience in developing social support networks, this course provides participants with the knowledge and skills necessary to become a social network facilitator. Designed to be both practical and inspirational, this course is available through the Plan Institute.

Email: inquiries@planinstitute.ca Website: www.planinstitute.ca

Social Networks Annotated Bibliography by Brian Smith

This bibliography has been prepared for people interested in addressing the fundamental challenge of marginalization through the development and facilitation of social networks. For many labeled and marginalized people, isolation and loneliness are the biggest challenges they face. We are discovering that without a well developed social network it is difficult if not impossible to fully participate in and contribute to society.

Home

A home is a sanctuary that our relatives can call their own. Home can take many different forms for those who experience disability. For those who need support in day to day life, traditional group homes were, at one time, the only option. Today, many families are creating exciting alternatives, some of which include home ownership.

Home is Where the Heart Is

A booklet created for families who are looking for options. The booklet discusses the issues to consider, various housing options developed by families and the advantages and disadvantages and methods of ownership. While developed for families living in British Columbia, the lessons are applicable universally.

Canadian Cohousing Network

Cohousing describes intentional neighbourhoods that combine the autonomy of private dwellings with the advantages of shared resources and community living. Residents usually own their individual homes, which are clustered around a "common house" with shared amenities. Each home is self-sufficient with a complete kitchen, but resident-cooked dinners are often available at the common house for those who wish to participate.

Supported Decision Making and Guardianship/Trusteeship

The ability to make choices about who will help us and where we will live is a basic need we all share. When our relatives reach the age of majority, parents no longer have the legal right to assist them with decisions. An alternative to obtaining legal guardianship is supported decision making. To find out more about legal options, the following resources are available.

Supported Decision Making

Outlines the continuum of supported decision making for different scenarios as well as information around Personal Directives, Wills, and Enduring Power of Attorney.

- Stronger Together – Ideas, reflections and suggestions about networks of support, by Bruce Kappel. Published by Support & Trustee Advisory Services of Brampton, Ontario 1998.
- We Come Bearing Gifts: The Story of the Deohaeko Support Network (1996) by Janet Klees,
- On our own...together: Trust funds for families with financially dependent loved ones and Endowment funds for small not-for-profit and charitable organizations (2002) This 270-page book is really two books in one. The first part looks at trust funds for people who have a financially dependent loved one (e.g., an elder, a child with a disability, a spouse with long-term care needs). These funds can provide extra financial security during and after the life of the person(s) establishing the trust. The second part looks at how small not-for-profit and charitable organizations can create and maintain endowment funds to cover operational costs of running their programs. The book concludes with specific fund raising techniques that can benefit both audiences plus extensive appendices with samples of the material recommended throughout the book.
- When I'm Gone, by Stephen Booth. An introduction to wills and estate planning for parents of people with an intellectual disability. One of the main concerns of parents of a child with an intellectual disability is 'what will happen when I'm gone?' This book discusses the issues and options involved in planning for the future of a person with an intellectual disability. 0947205667, REDFERN LEGAL CENTRE PUBLISHING, October 2002, PB Australia
